Dear Dean Allen:

During its 1966 campaign, the Michigan Law School Fund attained new highs both in terms of the number of alumni and friends making contributions and in terms of amount of money received. Accordingly, it gives me very real pleasure to be able to report that, as a result, $171,934.16 has been made available to you and your colleagues on the faculty to be used to provide the "extras in excellence" and thus to assist the Law School in maintaining its position of pre-eminence in the field of legal education.

The 1966 campaign dramatically reemphasized the continuing awareness which exists on the part of the alumni and friends of the Law School of needs which can be provided for only through the Law School Fund and a willingness to respond generously to those needs. The gratifying results of the 1966 campaign could not, however, have been achieved except for the efforts of some 480 loyal alumni who gave unstintingly of their time and effort to make that campaign a success and whose reward lies in the knowledge that they have made an added contribution to the Law School which is not measureable in dollars.

The 1966 campaign added another and satisfying chapter to the saga of the continued and continuing growth of the Law School Fund during the six years of its existence which the following table graphically unfolds:

Number of Contributors			Amounts Received
Year	Number	Increase Over Previous Year	Amount	Increase Over Previous Year
1961	1,198		$ 49,663.61
1962	1,820	51.9%	87,493.94	76.2%
1963	2,510	37.9%	128,012.81	46.3%
1964	2,913	16.1%	144,898.13	13.2%
1965	2,518	(13.6%)	147,236.81	1.6%
1966	3,347	32.7%	171,934.16	14.4%

On behalf of all who responded so generously to the needs of the Law School during the 1966 campaign of the Michigan Law School Fund and on behalf of all those loyal alumni who laboured so diligently and effectively to make that campaign a success, I tender to you the fruits of that campaign together with their every good wish and their assurance of a continuing awareness of the needs of the Law School and a willingness to assist you in satisfying those needs.

Sincerely,

Emmett E. Eagan
National Chairman

Dear Emmett:

The record made by the Law School Fund under your outstanding leadership is a source of great satisfaction to me and to the entire faculty and staff of the School. I wish to express the sincere gratitude of all of us for the contributions of time and money made by the alumni and friends of the School to this highly successful campaign.

Throughout my first year as Dean, I have been continually impressed by the importance of private giving to the life of the School. I am persuaded that this importance will increase, rather than diminish, in the future. The University of Michigan Law School is entering upon an era of increased activities and expanded intellectual commitments. This heightening of the tempo of training and scholarship reflects the age in which we live. Never has the legal profession been confronted by such opportunities, obligations, and challenges. We at the School propose to respond to these challenges in a manner befitting one of the world's great centers of legal education.

In such a time the demand for resources will increase. Even more than in the past the developing distinction of the School depends upon the support of its thousands of friends and alumni. Those participating in last year's Law School Fund have demonstrated a welcome awareness of these needs. We thank you for your substantial contribution to the excellence of the Law School and pledge our best efforts to merit your continuing support in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Francis A. Allen
Dean

Reading Between the Sheets

There are so many facts, statistics, numbers, names, etc. on the pages of this report that some noteworthy conclusions may be missed by a few of you who are too busy to make a detailed analysis. Thus, we shall try to help, and add a few comparisons that are not observable without access to the facts and figures from previous years.

In the first place, we have made a modest change in format. You will still find a summary of the gifts to the Fund on the basis of the various Law School classes, and we have a second summary showing the geographical distribution of our alumni and the numbers and total amounts of gifts received from these various geographical regions and subregions. These two reports reflect the basic "organization" for the Fund. But in this report for 1966, the list of contributors to the Fund has been changed to show the place of practice (or sometimes, residence) of the donor, instead of his or her class. A number of people suggested that they didn't know whether their friends were in the Class of '38 or '48, but they did know they practiced in Peoria or Tucson and they could look for their names more easily. We still have the names of contributors by classes, and these will be provided to the class agents for distribution in the fall.

We are continuing an alphabetical listing of donors whose gifts arrived in January 1967. The dollars will count in 1967, but we know that many of these gifts were the result of efforts in connection with the 1966 campaign. THERE WILL BE A CHANGE IN 1967. The 1967 (and future) campaigns will officially continue until January 31.

Last summer we voiced some mild concern about one fact. In 1965 the total dollars had increased somewhat, but the number of gifts had dropped off nearly 400 in comparison to the previous year. Happily, this happening did not become a trend, and we received over 800 more gifts in 1966 than in 1965, and reached a new high. Since the ultimate strength of the Law School Fund, and of the Law School in its relationships with the alumni in various ways, depends to a large extent on having the broadest possible base of participants, we are extremely pleased with this development. Hopefully, still more of you will want to join the crowd in 1967.

Contributions to the Law School Fund in 1966 totaled $171,934.16, which was an increase of $24,697.35, or 14.4 per cent over the total for 1965! For this you can be very proud, and we are very grateful.

We have a statement about the relationship between the Law School Fund and the $55 Million Program elsewhere in this report.

The Class of 1948, with 134 donors, continued in first place in the "largest number of contributors" category. But happily eight classes had more donors in 1966 than the winning 1948 total of 101 a year ago. The other 1965 leaders all remained near the top, but there was a shuffling of positions—1963 and 1959 exchanged second and fourth positions, and 1950 moved from seventh in 1965 to third in 1966. There was a whole new alignment of classes contributing the most dollars. In the very important category of percentage of contributors, the Class of 1943 virtually doubled its participation in 1966, and moved from far back in the pack to first place. Congratulations to Stuart Reading! Come on, class agents, give him a battle! Only the Class of 1955 (second this year and fourth in 1965) retained its place among the leaders. It's worth noting that the percentage of participation for each of the first five classes this year is higher than the winning percentage for the Class of 1930 a year ago.

Jim Bradley again obtained a gift from every alumnus in Alaska (plus an additional gift from the father of a present student). No other state quite made 100 per cent. Arthur Green, Jr., came within two in New Hampshire. What state will be next?

Our Regions vary greatly in size, total population, and density. Comparisons are difficult. However, in 1966 there was a higher amount of gifts from 12 of the 13 Regions. Only Region XIII (Hawaii) slipped a little. Nine of the thirteen Regions contributed more money in 1966 than in 1965. Perhaps special recognition should be given to Steve Clink in Region XII (western and northern Michigan). In 1966 he doubled the 1965 figures for that Region for both the number of gifts and total dollars.

In other boxes we have singled out geographical areas with a chairman in charge, some with 20 or more alumni, and some with less, in which the percentage of participation was high. Within our flexible pattern of organization, these areas range from whole states to single cities, but it is clear that in each area the chairman had his team well organized.

The pictures in this report are some shots of members of the National Committee when they were hard at work during the annual meeting on April 1, 1967. (No foolin'!) The conversation included an analysis of the 1966 campaign, and the setting of policy for 1967.

$55 Million Program and the Law School Fund

In the capsule report for 1965, which we sent out last year, we reported separately the gifts to the Law School Fund and the gifts to the $55 Million Program that had been designated for the Law School, and said we would do as much in the future. Since gifts to both funds are in response to your loyalty and regard for the Law School, and in recognition of its need for financial assistance in providing the "extras of excellence" to keep Michigan as a leader in legal education, we should like to continue to present these separate and combined totals to you.

But we can't! We can, however, give you some information and an explanation.

As most of you know, the two funds have separate goals and separate organizations. The University recognized the need and desirability for annual giving programs, such as the Law School Fund, and hoped that those who had been responding to these campaigns would continue to do so. It also hoped that on the occasion of the Sesquicentennial, alumni would dig deeper and make a once-in-a-lifetime gift to the University that would permit it to do some of the important things which were waiting in the wings. Since the timing for the various phases of the $55 Million Program has varied considerably in different localities, we have pretty much carried on business as usual.

Thus, numerous Law School alumni have been asked to contribute to, and help with, both campaigns. Many have done just that. Others felt that their time or their resources should be channeled into a single fund. Contributors to the $55 Million Program could, and many did, designate that their gifts be used for some Law School purpose.

So, why can't we report these gifts to you? Actually, the University's Gift Receiving Office has voluminous and detailed records of gifts to the $55 Million Program. After the close of that Program, a detailed report of the history, organization and progress of the University's Sesquicentennial Fund will be prepared and distributed. In the meantime, however, those records are just not in the right form and arrangement, and the timing of the periodic progress reports is such that we cannot easily extract the information we would need. In addition, we were puzzled by one aspect of the $55 Million Program that has no counterpart in the Law School Fund. Since the Law School Fund is a cash program and reported as such, we were uncertain of the impact and how to report the gifts to $55 Million which are in part or in total pledges to be paid in the future.

Some facts and figures that we can report are as follows. By the end of December, 1966, contributions to the $55 Million Program had been designated for and deposited into 28 different Law School accounts. Most of the gifts came from alumni, but some came from law firms, foundations, estates, and other friends of the School. Each of these gifts is important to us and deeply appreciated. The two accounts in this group of 28 that showed the greatest activity during 1966 were entitled "Law School-$55 Million Program" and "Foreign and Comparative Law Institute." The former is the repository for all gifts to the $55 Million Program that are designated generally for the Law School. Gifts to support our foreign and comparative law programs are deposited in the latter. During 1966, thirty-five donors pledged $51,936.25 and paid $15,031.76 into the first account, and seven donors pledged $162,305 and paid $57,355 for the second purpose.

Returns for the first four months of the new year suggest that gifts to the $55 Million Program from Law School alumni for Law School purposes will be numerous and generous again in 1967. These gifts will be reported to you in general by us in our next report, and in detail by the final report of the $55 Million Program.

Because of the difficulty of recovering detailed information about $55 Million Program donors, we have no reliable figures on the number of "double" donors. In addition to the "designated" gifts discussed above, it appears that about nine out of every 100 "undesignated" gifts to the $55 Million Program are received from Law School alumni. This is a wonderful demonstration of your undivided loyalty and non-partisan support for The University of Michigan.

National Chairman Emmett Eagan (right) and past National Chairman Thomas Koykka (left) were the recipients of the University's Sesquicentennial Award for their outstanding contributions to the well-being of the University. Vice President Allan F. Smith made the presentations. Herbert E. Wilson, of Indianapolis, the Fund's first National Chairman, also was selected to receive the award, but was unable to attend the meeting. His medallion and certificate were presented in Indianapolis.

The Team

Frequent references are made in this report and in various communications to the "team." It occurred to us that many of you who have been working hard on the local campaigns or have not yet served on this august body would like to know a bit more about its make-up. There are three basic groups—the multi-level geographic organizations, the class agents, and the National Committee (which includes a number of chairmen and class agents from the two previous groups). The names of the area chairmen and class agents are shown in the two summaries of their production. Unfortunately, we do not always receive the names of all of the local solicitors, and we do not have the room to print the names of those we have, but there are literally hundreds of these wonderful people without whom the Fund would be far less successful. It may surprise you (it did us when we stopped to count) that the identified members of this team numbered 479. Wow! To each of these hard working helpers (as well as those whose names we do not have) we give our special "thanks." (Incidentally, if you want to "try out" for the team, send your name to Ann Arbor and we'll turn it over to the coach.)

Corporate Matching Gift Program

Do you work for a company that has a matching gift program? If you do, your gift to the Law School Fund can be matched dollar for dollar by your company. All you need to do is obtain a matching gift form from your employer, fill it out and send it to us with your donation to the Law School Fund. It will be processed here, returned to your company, and your gift will become doubly valuable.
